August 22, 2022

ARLINGTON, Va., Aug. 22, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Fluence Energy, Inc. ("Fluence") (Nasdaq: FLNC), a leading global provider of energy storage products, services, and digital applications for renewables and storage, today announced a contract with Cubico Sustainable Investments (Cubico) to optimize the performance of the 350 MW Solem I and II solar plants in El Llano, Mexico, using Fluence's Nispera™ asset performance management (APM) software.

Fluence's Nispera APM software integrates asset data with intelligent machine learning models and visualization tools to help solar and wind plant owners uncover hidden performance issues, minimize downtime, and maximize energy production. Nispera will optimize operations and maintenance of the Solem I and II solar plants, which make up one of the largest solar projects in Latin America, with a focus on detecting possible budget deviations while proposing measures to improve performance and revenue to deliver more clean energy to the grid and the municipality of El Llano, Mexico.
